

EARLY FALL SUGGESTIONS

WINCHESTER FLASH LIGHTS

GUNS AND SPORTING GOODS

OIL HEATERS EATON-CHASE CO.

129 Main Street

ASSESSORS IN SESSION

The assessors have begun their sittings in their office at the court house to receive lists of property for taxation, but so far comparatively few taxpayers have put in their lists. The assessors will get in their lists early and save a rush in the last week of the last few days of October. They are particularly desirous of people who have bought property this year should get their lists in early so that the records of transfers may be followed up.

The earlier this can be done the easier it will be for the assessors and the taxpayers will know that they have their lists of their minds. The board of assessors includes A. R. Manning, Albie L. Hale and John B. Galt.

NOTICE

All Members, Mercier Assembly, wishing to attend Convention Dinner, kindly call undersigned, not later than Tuesday, October 10th.

Mrs. Timothy Driscoll,
Chairman
Phone 2218

Removal and Sale

By November 1st my business will remove to buildings on my own premises, No. 2 Winchester Place, Laurel Hill, where, with telephone connection, I hope to attend to all orders I may be given. In the time being, to reduce stock, I will make cash sales on anything I have at attractive prices.

JOHN TROLAND
PLUMBING AND SHEET METAL WORK
23 West Main St., Norwich

NOTICE

THE BLACKSMITH SHOP AT FRANKLIN, CONN., KNOWN AS THE BURDICK SHOP, WILL REOPEN MONDAY, OCT. 9, FOR HORSESHOEING AND WAGON WORK. TERMS CASH.

DR. SWEET

will be in his office every Saturday in the Central Building from 10 to 5 P. M.

PERSONALS

Miss Edna Herbert of Norwich was a visitor in New London Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bliven of 19 Main street entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sherris from Burlington, Mass., for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson and daughter Olga and son Frederick of Whalom park, are on a motor trip to cities in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

Miss Mary Lawrence of Warren, R. I., has sailed, accompanied by her mother, Miss White, a teacher of languages, for Europe, where the musical education of Miss Lawrence will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll of Chatham street and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Ryan and son, James of Division street, stopped to Fitchburg, Mass., recently and were guests of James E. Carroll.

SALE CONNECTICUT SHOULD RETURN WILSON TO SENATE
Col. Efram Bingham, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, was a visitor at republican headquarters in Hartford and upon being asked for his opinion regarding the issue of the campaign made some observations. Colonel Bingham's position as chief of personnel in the service during the first months of the war and his later service in France, afforded him greater opportunities than afforded the average heads of becoming thoroughly familiar with congressional activity during the war period.

His statements are therefore based upon the actual contact with the men and the incidents he refers to. The paramount issue of the campaign, according to Colonel Bingham, is the question of endorsement of the policy of the federal administration by the people this fall.

"It seems to me," said Colonel Bingham, "that the citizens of Connecticut are to be congratulated on being able to vote this fall to return to the senate of the United States a man with the ability and experience of Senator McLean."

"Connecticut has had a fine record in the United States senate and Mr. McLean has been in every respect worthy of his distinguished predecessors. During the first year of the war, when I was on duty in Washington, I had an opportunity to observe the workings of the federal government at close range, and was very much surprised to observe how many democratic senators and representatives were willing to interrupt constantly the progress of the war by asking personal favors for their constituents. In my position to see how the thoughtless and self-seeking members of congress would be placing the interests of their friends before the interests of the country. It made me proud of being a citizen of Connecticut to notice during all of this time a single member of congress who placed the interests of his constituents before the interests of the country."

Signor De Grutilla, "kellie," and Signor Christopher, violinist, will play at the evening service at the Central Baptist church Sunday—saw.

A monster "strut" ceremony is to be held in Middletown Saturday, November 18th. It is expected that 2,000 Strutters will participate in the parade in the afternoon. The ceremony will take place in the evening.

The war department at Washington has been appealed to by friends of soldiers at Allington hospital in order that the ex-service men may be served coffee and cake free of charge by volunteer workers.

Miss Beale Cornell of Old Lyme, Mrs. E. Denison of Groton, Ada Pawitt, Niantic, C. S. Beebe of Colchester, and Lucy P. Schofield of Montville attended the state convention of libraries at New London Friday.

The 23rd annual session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., of Connecticut, will be held at Bridgeport Thursday, Oct. 18. Delegates from all sections of the state will be present, as well as from New York and New Jersey.

Miss Anna E. Nolan, principal of the Lincoln grammar school in Southington, has been elected president of the Connecticut Teachers' Federation, succeeding Miss Caroline H. Jones, the retiring president, of New Haven.

Charles C. Wright, who has been secretary and instructor at the Mystic Community Home for over a year, has sent in his resignation, to take effect on the 1st of this month. Mr. Wright has been offered a position at Lewiston, Me.

Fred Flannigan, Edwin Kelley and Willard Hubbard of Middletown are representing the State of Connecticut at the annual meeting of the Trinity College Association for the Maynard Plan of New York, Inc., a unique corporation which insures capital of investors against loss.

Colleges have too much money and their professors are overworked, said a prominent member of the Trinity College Association in arguing against the twelve month college year that has recently been advised by the Institute of Public Survey.

Except to extreme weather it should be possible to obtain satisfactory results with soft coal if attention is given to the fire morning noon and evening and the last thing at night a stationary fire should be kept in the grate.

Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the state police has notified the motor vehicle department that the arrests made by the state police during the past four months, 647, or about 54.4 per cent, were for violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Edward O. Moore of Hartford has bought a large tract of land consisting of several acres situated on the Eastern Point road, from the estate of the late Frank Haddington. The land is on the west side of the road in the vicinity of Chapman's corner.

Due to recent orders by the navy department at Washington, the U. S. Naval Reserve force, which has lain dormant for more than a year, has now taken on a new lease of life. Men are needed and will be recruited until the full strength is reached.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter of Waterford has presented to the state library at Hartford, an ancient survey, plotted on oak skin, of Danvers, Josiah, Hazel, and Ashford and Canterbury, as surveyed April 11, 1733, by Josiah Canaan, surveyor for the colony of Connecticut.

Forty per cent of Connecticut's usual coal supply will have to be made up with substitutes, was the advice given by Paul Administrator Thomas W. Russell in letters sent out to various fuel administrators in the state, concerning definite instructions covering the distribution of coal.

SCOUTS' COURT OF HONOR MAKES MAJOR M. R. WATERS' TENDERFOOT

Louis B. Mousley, Troop No. 4, Boy Scouts of America, has the distinction of being the first Eagle Scout in Norwich, receiving his Eagle Scout badge Friday night from Scout Executive F. A. Benton, during the Court of Honor held in the mayor's office in the court house.

In order to gain the highest rank in scouting, the applicant must pass 21 merit tests, eleven of which are selected and comprise the hardest of the lot.

Another feature of the court of honor was when Scout Executive Benton called upon Mayor M. R. Waters to arise and receive the Scout tenderfoot. This was done and Mayor Waters followed in as a tenderfoot Scout of Norwich. Following the American march led by Lawrence Browning of South Scituate, Mayor Waters said that it would indeed be difficult to live up to the oath he had taken, but if he, and every scout did his best to follow the oath they had taken, they could but be better citizens.

Following the entrance of Mayor Waters into Scouting, Chief Lemuel O'Connell Fielding was sworn in as a tenderfoot Scout and was given a cheer by the Scouts. Chief O'Connell had spoken to the Scouts and sang several songs.

The assembly was sounded at 8 o'clock and over fifty Scouts, members of the court of honor and guests present. The first order of business was the Scout salute to the flag, following which Rev. Robert L. Roberts, Ph. D., gave the invocation. Then the "Meditation Man," then spoke to the Scouts. Scout Executive Benton after a brief word of introduction then called the Scouts to the court and presented camp letters and prices.

President Henry A. Threlk of the court of honor, was the next speaker, following which he began to present the second class of Scouts. Chief O'Connell was the Scouts since the last court of honor. Each Scout took merit badges was asked questions about the test, Mayor M. R. Waters asking a Scout who had won a merit badge for printing if he had ever seen a "type house," receiving an answer that the Scout had "heard of them."

Scout Executive Benton then gave the Scout tenderfoot, Ralph Vail, swimming; Robert W. Flowers, swimming; Troop No. 1, Plainfield; David Planchon, Troop No. 1, Plainfield; Ralph Vail, Troop No. 1, Plainfield; Otis Fellows, Troop No. 1, Plainfield.

Second Class Badges
Thomas Baldwin, Troop No. 12; Morris Requin, Troop No. 4; Philip Requin, Troop No. 4; Bertram Parent, Troop No. 4.

First Class Badges
Edward Glumb, Troop No. 1; Robert Schmidt, Troop No. 3; Charles Phillips, Troop No. 1, Plainfield; David Planchon, Troop No. 1, Plainfield; Ralph Vail, Troop No. 1, Plainfield; Otis Fellows, Troop No. 1, Plainfield.

Third Class Badges
Albert Bibeau—Swimming; David P. Planchon—Swimming; Ralph Vail, swimming; Robert W. Flowers, swimming; Troop No. 1, Norwich—Edward Antoonian, public health, printing, first aid to animals, first aid to humans, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Fourth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—Eric Pickering, swimming, chemistry; Victor Davis, chemistry, Robert Schmidt, swimming; Troop No. 6, Norwich—Leon Lewis, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Fifth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

SIXTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

SEVENTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

EIGHTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

NINTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

TENTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

ELEVENTH CLASS BADGES
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Twelfth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Thirteenth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Fourteenth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Fifteenth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

Sixteenth Class Badges
Troop No. 1, Plainfield—William Latham, swimming, personal health, public health, first aid to humans, first aid to animals, first aid to plants, first aid to minerals, first aid to the world, first aid to the universe, first aid to the future.

PERSONALS

Miss Edna Herbert of Norwich was a visitor in New London Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bliven of 19 Main street entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sherris from Burlington, Mass., for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson and daughter Olga and son Frederick of Whalom park, are on a motor trip to cities in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

Miss Mary Lawrence of Warren, R. I., has sailed, accompanied by her mother, Miss White, a teacher of languages, for Europe, where the musical education of Miss Lawrence will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll of Chatham street and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Ryan and son, James of Division street, stopped to Fitchburg, Mass., recently and were guests of James E. Carroll.

SALE CONNECTICUT SHOULD RETURN WILSON TO SENATE
Col. Efram Bingham, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, was a visitor at republican headquarters in Hartford and upon being asked for his opinion regarding the issue of the campaign made some observations. Colonel Bingham's position as chief of personnel in the service during the first months of the war and his later service in France, afforded him greater opportunities than afforded the average heads of becoming thoroughly familiar with congressional activity during the war period.

His statements are therefore based upon the actual contact with the men and the incidents he refers to. The paramount issue of the campaign, according to Colonel Bingham, is the question of endorsement of the policy of the federal administration by the people this fall.

"It seems to me," said Colonel Bingham, "that the citizens of Connecticut are to be congratulated on being able to vote this fall to return to the senate of the United States a man with the ability and experience of Senator McLean."

"Connecticut has had a fine record in the United States senate and Mr. McLean has been in every respect worthy of his distinguished predecessors. During the first year of the war, when I was on duty in Washington, I had an opportunity to observe the workings of the federal government at close range, and was very much surprised to observe how many democratic senators and representatives were willing to interrupt constantly the progress of the war by asking personal favors for their constituents. In my position to see how the thoughtless and self-seeking members of congress would be placing the interests of their friends before the interests of the country."

Signor De Grutilla, "kellie," and Signor Christopher, violinist, will play at the evening service at the Central Baptist church Sunday—saw.

A monster "strut" ceremony is to be held in Middletown Saturday, November 18th. It is expected that 2,000 Strutters will participate in the parade in the afternoon. The ceremony will take place in the evening.

The war department at Washington has been appealed to by friends of soldiers at Allington hospital in order that the ex-service men may be served coffee and cake free of charge by volunteer workers.

Miss Beale Cornell of Old Lyme, Mrs. E. Denison of Groton, Ada Pawitt, Niantic, C. S. Beebe of Colchester, and Lucy P. Schofield of Montville attended the state convention of libraries at New London Friday.

The 23rd annual session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., of Connecticut, will be held at Bridgeport Thursday, Oct. 18. Delegates from all sections of the state will be present, as well as from New York and New Jersey.

Miss Anna E. Nolan, principal of the Lincoln grammar school in Southington, has been elected president of the Connecticut Teachers' Federation, succeeding Miss Caroline H. Jones, the retiring president, of New Haven.

Charles C. Wright, who has been secretary and instructor at the Mystic Community Home for over a year, has sent in his resignation, to take effect on the 1st of this month. Mr. Wright has been offered a position at Lewiston, Me.

Fred Flannigan, Edwin Kelley and Willard Hubbard of Middletown are representing the State of Connecticut at the annual meeting of the Trinity College Association for the Maynard Plan of New York, Inc., a unique corporation which insures capital of investors against loss.

Colleges have too much money and their professors are overworked, said a prominent member of the Trinity College Association in arguing against the twelve month college year that has recently been advised by the Institute of Public Survey.

Except to extreme weather it should be possible to obtain satisfactory results with soft coal if attention is given to the fire morning noon and evening and the last thing at night a stationary fire should be kept in the grate.

Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the state police has notified the motor vehicle department that the arrests made by the state police during the past four months, 647, or about 54.4 per cent, were for violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Edward O. Moore of Hartford has bought a large tract of land consisting of several acres situated on the Eastern Point road, from the estate of the late Frank Haddington. The land is on the west side of the road in the vicinity of Chapman's corner.

Due to recent orders by the navy department at Washington, the U. S. Naval Reserve force, which has lain dormant for more than a year, has now taken on a new lease of life. Men are needed and will be recruited until the full strength is reached.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter of Waterford has presented to the state library at Hartford, an ancient survey, plotted on oak skin, of Danvers, Josiah, Hazel, and Ashford and Canterbury, as surveyed April 11, 1733, by Josiah Canaan, surveyor for the colony of Connecticut.

Forty per cent of Connecticut's usual coal supply will have to be made up with substitutes, was the advice given by Paul Administrator Thomas W. Russell in letters sent out to various fuel administrators in the state, concerning definite instructions covering the distribution of coal.

PERSONALS

Miss Edna Herbert of Norwich was a visitor in New London Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bliven of 19 Main street entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sherris from Burlington, Mass., for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson and daughter Olga and son Frederick of Whalom park, are on a motor trip to cities in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

Miss Mary Lawrence of Warren, R. I., has sailed, accompanied by her mother, Miss White, a teacher of languages, for Europe, where the musical education of Miss Lawrence will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll of Chatham street and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Ryan and son, James of Division street, stopped to Fitchburg, Mass., recently and were guests of James E. Carroll.

SALE CONNECTICUT SHOULD RETURN WILSON TO SENATE
Col. Efram Bingham, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, was a visitor at republican headquarters in Hartford and upon being asked for his opinion regarding the issue of the campaign made some observations. Colonel Bingham's position as chief of personnel in the service during the first months of the war and his later service in France, afforded him greater opportunities than afforded the average heads of becoming thoroughly familiar with congressional activity during the war period.

His statements are therefore based upon the actual contact with the men and the incidents he refers to. The paramount issue of the campaign, according to Colonel Bingham, is the question of endorsement of the policy of the federal administration by the people this fall.

"It seems to me," said Colonel Bingham, "that the citizens of Connecticut are to be congratulated on being able to vote this fall to return to the senate of the United States a man with the ability and experience of Senator McLean."

"Connecticut has had a fine record in the United States senate and Mr. McLean has been in every respect worthy of his distinguished predecessors. During the first year of the war, when I was on duty in Washington, I had an opportunity to observe the workings of the federal government at close range, and was very much surprised to observe how many democratic senators and representatives were willing to interrupt constantly the progress of the war by asking personal favors for their constituents. In my position to see how the thoughtless and self-seeking members of congress would be placing the interests of their friends before the interests of the country."

Signor De Grutilla, "kellie," and Signor Christopher, violinist, will play at the evening service at the Central Baptist church Sunday—saw.

A monster "strut" ceremony is to be held in Middletown Saturday, November 18th. It is expected that 2,000 Strutters will participate in the parade in the afternoon. The ceremony will take place in the evening.

The war department at Washington has been appealed to by friends of soldiers at Allington hospital in order that the ex-service men may be served coffee and cake free of charge by volunteer workers.

Miss Beale Cornell of Old Lyme, Mrs. E. Denison of Groton, Ada Pawitt, Niantic, C. S. Beebe of Colchester, and Lucy P. Schofield of Montville attended the state convention of libraries at New London Friday.

The 23rd annual session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., of Connecticut, will be held at Bridgeport Thursday, Oct. 18. Delegates from all sections of the state will be present, as well as from New York and New Jersey.

Miss Anna E. Nolan, principal of the Lincoln grammar school in Southington, has been elected president of the Connecticut Teachers' Federation, succeeding Miss Caroline H. Jones, the retiring president, of New Haven.

Charles C. Wright, who has been secretary and instructor at the Mystic Community Home for over a year, has sent in his resignation, to take effect on the 1st of this month. Mr. Wright has been offered a position at Lewiston, Me.

Fred Flannigan, Edwin Kelley and Willard Hubbard of Middletown are representing the State of Connecticut at the annual meeting of the Trinity College Association for the Maynard Plan of New York, Inc., a unique corporation which insures capital of investors against loss.

Colleges have too much money and their professors are overworked, said a prominent member of the Trinity College Association in arguing against the twelve month college year that has recently been advised by the Institute of Public Survey.

Except to extreme weather it should be possible to obtain satisfactory results with soft coal if attention is given to the fire morning noon and evening and the last thing at night a stationary fire should be kept in the grate.

Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the state police has notified the motor vehicle department that the arrests made by the state police during the past four months, 647, or about 54.4 per cent, were for violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Edward O. Moore of Hartford has bought a large tract of land consisting of several acres situated on the Eastern Point road, from the estate of the late Frank Haddington. The land is on the west side of the road in the vicinity of Chapman's corner.

Due to recent orders by the navy department at Washington, the U. S. Naval Reserve force, which has lain dormant for more than a year, has now taken on a new lease of life. Men are needed and will be recruited until the full strength is reached.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter of Waterford has presented to the state library at Hartford, an ancient survey, plotted on oak skin, of Danvers, Josiah, Hazel, and Ashford and Canterbury, as surveyed April 11, 1733, by Josiah Canaan, surveyor for the colony of Connecticut.

Forty per cent of Connecticut's usual coal supply will have to be made up with substitutes, was the advice given by Paul Administrator Thomas W. Russell in letters sent out to various fuel administrators in the state, concerning definite instructions covering the distribution of coal.

PERSONALS

Miss Edna Herbert of Norwich was a visitor in New London Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bliven of 19 Main street entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sherris from Burlington, Mass., for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Johnson and daughter Olga and son Frederick of Whalom park, are on a motor trip to cities in Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

Miss Mary Lawrence of Warren, R. I., has sailed, accompanied by her mother, Miss White, a teacher of languages, for Europe, where the musical education of Miss Lawrence will be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Carroll of Chatham street and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Ryan and son, James of Division street, stopped to Fitchburg, Mass., recently and were guests of James E. Carroll.

SALE CONNECTICUT SHOULD RETURN WILSON TO SENATE
Col. Efram Bingham, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, was a visitor at republican headquarters in Hartford and upon being asked for his opinion regarding the issue of the campaign made some observations. Colonel Bingham's position as chief of personnel in the service during the first months of the war and his later service in France, afforded him greater opportunities than afforded the average heads of becoming thoroughly familiar with congressional activity during the war period.

His statements are therefore based upon the actual contact with the men and the incidents he refers to. The paramount issue of the campaign, according to Colonel Bingham, is the question of endorsement of the policy of the federal administration by the people this fall.

"It seems to me," said Colonel Bingham, "that the citizens of Connecticut are to be congratulated on being able to vote this fall to return to the senate of the United States a man with the ability and experience of Senator McLean."

"Connecticut has had a fine record in the United States senate and Mr. McLean has been in every respect worthy of his distinguished predecessors. During the first year of the war, when I was on duty in Washington, I had an opportunity to observe the workings of the federal government at close range, and was very much surprised to observe how many democratic senators and representatives were willing to interrupt constantly the progress of the war by asking personal favors for their constituents. In my position to see how the thoughtless and self-seeking members of congress would be placing the interests of their friends before the interests of the country."

Signor De Grutilla, "kellie," and Signor Christopher, violinist, will play at the evening service at the Central Baptist church Sunday—saw.

A monster "strut" ceremony is to be held in Middletown Saturday, November 18th. It is expected that 2,000 Strutters will participate in the parade in the afternoon. The ceremony will take place in the evening.

The war department at Washington has been appealed to by friends of soldiers at Allington hospital in order that the ex-service men may be served coffee and cake free of charge by volunteer workers.

Miss Beale Cornell of Old Lyme, Mrs. E. Denison of Groton, Ada Pawitt, Niantic, C. S. Beebe of Colchester, and Lucy P. Schofield of Montville attended the state convention of libraries at New London Friday.

The 23rd annual session of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., of Connecticut, will be held at Bridgeport Thursday, Oct. 18. Delegates from all sections of the state will be present, as well as from New York and New Jersey.

Miss Anna E. Nolan, principal of the Lincoln grammar school in Southington, has been elected president of the Connecticut Teachers' Federation, succeeding Miss Caroline H. Jones, the retiring president, of New Haven.

Charles C. Wright, who has been secretary and instructor at the Mystic Community Home for over a year, has sent in his resignation, to take effect on the 1st of this month. Mr. Wright has been offered a position at Lewiston, Me.

Fred Flannigan, Edwin Kelley and Willard Hubbard of Middletown are representing the State of Connecticut at the annual meeting of the Trinity College Association for the Maynard Plan of New York, Inc., a unique corporation which insures capital of investors against loss.

Colleges have too much money and their professors are overworked, said a prominent member of the Trinity College Association in arguing against the twelve month college year that has recently been advised by the Institute of Public Survey.

Except to extreme weather it should be possible to obtain satisfactory results with soft coal if attention is given to the fire morning noon and evening and the last thing at night a stationary fire should be kept in the grate.

Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the state police has notified the motor vehicle department that the arrests made by the state police during the past four months, 647, or about 54.4 per cent, were for violations of the motor vehicle laws.

Edward O. Moore of Hartford has bought a large tract of land consisting of several acres situated on the Eastern Point road, from the estate of the late Frank Haddington. The land is on the west side of the road in the vicinity of Chapman's corner.

Due to recent orders by the navy department at Washington, the U. S. Naval Reserve force, which has lain dormant for more than a year, has now taken on a new lease of life. Men are needed and will be recruited until the full strength is reached.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter of Waterford has presented to the state library at Hartford, an ancient survey, plotted on oak skin, of